SMITH'S KIDNEY TONIC—TRY IT.

THE TURKISH MISSION.

OFFENSE TAKEN BY THE SULTAN AT ENGLAND'S ATTITUDE.

Too Distant to Suit the Cre-cent-Jeweled Head of Kismet.
—Our Mary—Mr. Healy—England and Russia—Foreign.

VARNA, Sept. 2.—The Wolff mission has not proved all smooth water. A little difficulty occurred at the outset, of which a great deal more was made in diplomatic circles than circumstances warranted. The sultan did not like the tone of Sir Henry Drummond Wolff's speech of which a copy, according to traditional usage, is always presented before the audience—owing to a too literal translation. England was made to appear as if she authoritatively demanded Turkey's assistance instead of offering to restore order in Egypt. The matter having been explained and due prominence having been accorded to the sultan's position he consented to receive Sir Henry.

In an interview the English envoy read a personal message from Queen Victoria to the sultan expressing his warmest regards for peace and friendship. The queen refers in the message to a previous acquaintance with the sultan, and recalls the loyalty of the sultan's father as a friend and ally of England. She says she hopes to help the sultan to establish a government in Egypt conducive equally to the rights of the Egyptians and the interests of England and the powers, and that this will be the basis of the Wolff mission.

The sultan made a gracious reply, saying he valued the friendship of Queen Victoria and an alliance with England. He said that he would designate persons to confer with Sir H. D. Wolff respecting Egypt, and would grant a further audience on the subject. Sir Henry was highly pleased with the audience, and afterward visited the grand vizier and the minister of foreign affairs.

The Caroline Question.
MADRID, Sept. 2.—The ministerial organs severely blame Gen. Salanueva for having returned his order to the German government and disapproval of the proposal to raise a public subscription for presenting him with a sword of honor. It seems that a serious demonstration took place at the Circo Vique, where the public invited the German colors being removed from the place, but as a set off against this bad feeling Count von Solms-Sonnenwalde, the German minister, has conferred with King Alfonso at La Granja and assured him that his government would not take the Caroline question in a friendly manner.

A public meeting was held at Barcelona to protest against the seizure of the Caroline islands by Germany. The populace demanded that the Spanish flag should be hoisted on the government building, and some engaged when the authorities refused to comply with their demand. The main door of the building was set on fire by the mob and the military had to be called out to restore order.

Difference of Opinion.
LONDON, Sept. 2.—The London morning papers differ in their criticisms on Miss Mary Anderson's Rosalind, as performed on Stratford-on-Avon. One or two critics, notably Client and Sketch, extravagantly praise her impersonation. Some stir her with faint commendation. Others are condemnatory. Mr. Anderson, however, on the realistic Shakespearean effects of Manager Abbey.

The turmoil, which as Audrey Mrs. Billington munched, she took the day before, with the garden of Anne Hathaway's cottage, while the deal door brought on in the form of the stuffed remains of the animal, killed and presented to the theater by the owner of Charlotte park, whence the bard's alleged death occurred, and the keeper and the dog denied the presence of the deer came from the demesne associated with the history of the poet's early life.

Abaco-Lorraine.
PARIS, Sept. 2.—The Gazette Diplomatique says Prince Holstein, the new Stathouder of Abaco-Lorraine, will inaugurate his administration by a general decree, in virtue of which all French subjects resident and located in the imperial province will be compelled to evacuate German territory without delay. Count Zemoisky, son of the celebrated son of the same name and a naturalized Frenchman, has been expelled from Paris, where he holds extensive landed property. It is rumored that French reprisals are about to occur, Biarritz being mentioned as about to expel certain Russian subjects. There is no doubt that French feeling is much aroused by the Spanish attitude toward Germany.

Mr. Healy on Ireland.
DUBLIN, Sept. 2.—A large league meeting was held at Killiney. T. H. Healy, M. P., spoke on the last question. He said the people to abstain from committing outrages, especially when they serve the interests of landlords and policemen, and that they should not put all their trust in the Irish party in the house of commons, who were only supposed to be the army camp. Mr. O'Brien, M. P., followed. He declared that the advantages gained would never be lost and that landlords could be abolished.

England and Russia.
ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 2.—The Official Messenger of this city has published a correspondence from Tokyo, stating that the English press of Yokohama has unsuccessfully tried to excite the opinion of the Japanese government and the European colony against Russia. It adds that the American envoy, Mr. Bingham, was leaving Japan, but it is thought that his successor, Mr. Hubbard, will continue the former's anti-British policy.

Our More Sea Sergeant.
LONDON, Sept. 2.—Captain Roberts, of the British ship Endeavour, arrived at Queenstown on the 29th inst. He reports that the 5th int. in latitude 39 degrees 55 minutes north, longitude 43 degrees 50 minutes west, he saw a sea serpent 4½ feet long and seven feet in circumference lying on the surface of a smooth sea, nine feet from the ship's side. It was light pink in color and was observed for fifteen minutes.

Abandoned.
DUBLIN, Sept. 2.—John Moriarty, tiler of the Librarian bank, Dublin, has absconded with $10,000. A warrant is out for his arrest.

Politics and Personalities.
LONDON, Sept. 2.—Three persons were killed and several injured by the fall of a cliff at the village of Dawlish, Devonshire.

The Earl of Carnarvon, lord lieutenant of Ireland, threats with prompt and condign punishment the rioters who recently interrupted to prevent a visit to Mullinartree. He says the mob must be taught to respect the law.

Count Kinsky has returned from Varzin to Vienna. It is learned that Prince Bismarck maintains the conviction that protection alone will save German industries. The German chancellor would be loath to adopt the strongest protective measures for Austria-Hungary.

The Rev. Mr. Enoch's church, in Belfast, before a congregation numbering forty thousand. He afterward addressed an assemblage composed of about 100,000 persons, who could not gain admittance to the church.

The Liberal, of Madrid, writes that an increase of the Spanish navy is imperatively demanded and advocates the raising of money for this purpose by popular subscription. Prominent naval officers concur in the views of the Liberal.

The Russian government has issued a decree making the Greek church the established religion of thirty Baltic provinces. Protestantism will only be tolerated. Children born of mixed marriages are to be trained in the Greek church, the decree is intended to excite great discontent among the German settlers.

M. Jules Ferry addressed an audience of 4,000 persons at Bordeaux. He opposed abolition of the religious budget and revision of the constitution, and said he believed that Comptin could pay the expenses of occupation. He said that France was respected because she was strong, and that she must save confidence in herself and respect for the rights of others.

A Written Notice.
ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 2.—The town of Carle is excited over the death of a respectable colored man named Hiram Walker, aged 45. He was apparently very ill with consumption. His doctors were dismissed and he was left to die. Hiram Walker, called in. The sorrowful scene of every aperture of the sick room, excluding fresh air. After leaving the man alone for some hours he came out and ran away. Mr. Walker hurried into the room and found him dead. He died at five minutes. The wish struck some pins in the front door and on the steps, and to Mrs. Walker told the first person who came upon the stairs would be the cause of her wretched husband. The woman will probably be arrested for murder.

Washington's Assembly.
ROME, N. Y., Sept. 2.—The annual convention of the political branch of the veterans' assembly of the state of New York was opened here. Among those present were George Blair, D. D. Kent and Joseph Connelly, of New York, and a number of others prominently identified with the labor movement in the state. The convention assembled at the New York Hotel, in order at 11 o'clock. Chairman George Blair in his opening address reviewed the work of the labor party in the state and the treatment of the measure introduced by its candidates in the legislature by the members of old parties and the governor.

Shot Through the Heart.
NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Tom Davis, brother of Fitzgerald, the champion pedestrian, was shot and instantly killed in M. Purcell's gambling house on Broadway and Rensselaer street, by James B. Johnson, of Colorado City and Aberdeen, Texas. They had quarreled, but over what is not known. It is said that Johnson was carrying a loaded revolver, the bullet going clean through the body. Johnson says he is a stock speculator.

More Water.
CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 2.—The rain was the hardest ever in this section. It flooded streets and cellars and ran not less than one hundred thousand dollars damage. The wind blew thirty-five miles an hour and another cyclone was feared. The loss by last week's storm will reach two million dollars. At least five thousand roofs in the city were damaged. Despite these misfortunes the people are cheerful and repairs are energetically pushed forward. The new cotton crop is coming in and is handled without delay.

Texas Anti-Prohibition.
WACO, TEX., Sept. 2.—The local option election in this McLennan county, has taken place. A heavy vote was polled, and the result is a victory for the anti-prohibitionists. Their majority will reach 1,500. The election attracted much attention throughout the state because of the active part taken in the canvass by Senator Coke and Roger Q. Mills. Both these men are personal enemies of the prohibition doctrine of national government.

Ku-Kluxing.
CATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 2.—The ku-kluxing in North Georgia, which caused the death of a colored man, has not ended. A body of armed vigilantes broke into the house of a negro named Perry and killed him. They also killed a white lady. They committed this in the county and have notified three other proslavery characters to go. These events cause much excitement.

Good Court-News.
ABURY PARK, Conn., Sept. 2.—George Curry, in a fit of jealous rage, attempted to kill his sweetheart and shot himself through the head, dying from the wound. The girl's name is Susan Weis. Curry fired one shot at her, but the bullet struck one of her ears and did not penetrate her head. The suicide is the son of a well-known and prominent resident of Rod Bank.

THE RIVERSIDE TOMB.

PILGRIMAGES OF THE PUBLIC TO THE GRAVE OF GENERAL GRANT.

A Hitherto Neglected Spot Which Has Come Into Great Popularity—The Hushed Coated Soldiers Who are Patiently Guarding the Sepulchre.

New York, Sept. 2.—Although it is nearly a month since the remains of Gen. Grant were placed in the tomb at Riverside park, the daily pilgrimages to his grave continue, nor does there appear to be any decline falling off in the number of those attracted to the now historical spot. During the past week, although the weather has been cloudy, thousands of persons have journeyed by elevated roads and cross-town cars to the sepulchre, and it is the opinion of those who are obliged to make their headquarters in the vicinity of the tomb that the daily invasions of curious visitors will continue practically the same for some time.

All day long a stiff breeze blew down the river and across the little knoll on which rests the tomb. Dark clouds obscured the sun and the day has been everywhere dull and uncomfortable. Wraps and umbrellas were carried by the throngs of people. The northbound elevated trains were incessantly crowded with people, and the cross-town horse car lines were taxed to their utmost capacity to carry the travelers. There were, too, many motor cars and vehicles on the Riverside drive, many of which were handsome private carriages, showing that the wealthy residents of New York are not returning from the city. The procession of stylish turnouts may be taken as an indication of the brilliant spectacle which the Riverside drive will undoubtedly present during the approaching autumn. The general tone and character of the throngs is entirely different from that prevailing during the past week. The picnic companies and the lunch-bested families, who came to the tomb to enjoy the view, are now giving place to the constant stream of quiet, decorous men and women, while the loud, grating laugh of the vulgar is no longer heard. The constant exposure of the inside decorations of the tomb to the air has necessitated a thorough cleaning, which was completed yesterday by Capt. Fessenden. The withered flowers were removed and the inner walls and casket relieved of a thick coating of dust.

The refuse frames and worthless decorations were immediately appropriated by the gaudy crowd, and many of them were taken to the city dump. After the inside of the tomb had been attended to by a scaffolding was erected on the outside and the work of cleaning the exterior was begun. The scaffolding was erected on the outside and the work of cleaning the exterior was begun. The scaffolding was erected on the outside and the work of cleaning the exterior was begun.

The colonel was received by Capt. Fessenden and escorted to the tomb. He surveyed the camp quarters carefully and then returned to the island. "How long do you stay there?" was asked of Capt. Fessenden by a reporter. "The 8th of September ends our term of service," was the reply. "We will be relieved by Company C, and they will be relieved by Company D, and they will be relieved by Company E, and they will be relieved by Company F, and they will be relieved by Company G, and little son of a railroad excursion. The little fellow looked out of the window when the father slipped the hat off the boy's head. The latter was much grieved at his supposed loss, when papa consoled him by saying he would "whistle it back." A little later he whistled and the hat reappeared. Not long after the little lad flung the hat out of the window, shouting: "Now, papa, whistle it back again!" A roar of laughter served to enhance the confusion of papa.—Scranton Truth.
